NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits

NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits (previously the NDIS Price Guide) assist participants and disability support providers in understanding how price controls for supports and services work in the NDIS.

Price regulation is in place to ensure that participants receive value for money in the supports that they receive.

The Support Catalogue lists all available supports providers can use when lodging a payment request.

It also provides information on the current (and previous) price limits for each support item and indicates which claim types (travel, non-face-to-face, etc.) apply for each price-limited support item.

Price limits are the maximum prices that registered providers can charge NDIS participants for specific supports.

Participants and providers can negotiate lower prices. The rules outlined in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits must be followed when supports are delivered to NDIA-managed or plan-managed participants.

The NDIA regularly updates pricing arrangements.

Group and Centre Based Social and Community Participation Supports - Pricing Transition

The transitional pricing arrangements for group and centre based social and community participation supports end on 31 December 2023.

The new pricing arrangements must be used from 1 January 2024

A range of resources are available to support transition.

- You can download guidance for providers who deliver group and centre based social and community participation supports. You can also find more information and answers to frequently asked questions in our video presentation series published here.
- The pricing changes may require some participants to enter new service agreements or update their schedule of supports. To help explain the changes to participants, you can download a participant guide or easy read participant guide.
- Plan managers can download the plan manager fact sheet to help understand the pricing change from an invoicing and claiming perspective.

Pricing Arrangements for Specialist Disability Accommodation

Pricing Arrangements for Specialist Disability Accommodation (previously the Price Guide for Specialist Disability Accommodation) is a summary of prices that apply to Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) under the NDIS.

Pricing arrangements for SDA can be found on the SDA pricing and payments page.

Disability Support Worker Cost Model

The cost model estimates the cost of delivering a billable hour of support taking into account all of the costs associated with every billable hour.

The NDIS Disability Support Worker Cost Model has been updated to better reflect the cost structures of efficient providers in the sector.

This model is the basis of the price limits set by the NDIA for supports delivered by disability support workers.
