 ADD_SERVICES_SIL_VERY_REMOTE

This COVID direct billing arrangement applies for the periods and areas (states and local government areas (LGAs)) specified in this Addendum.

Providers should use the code relevant to the remoteness classification of the participant to whom the support is provided.

This support recognises that providers of Assistance in Supported Independent Living supports will sometimes incur additional costs in providing supports to a participant where the participant is required to self-isolate or quarantine in accordance with COVID health advice and to ensure their personal safety and wellbeing. (These costs could include additional costs of higher intensity support (staffing increase), Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) for the support workers, professional laundering, and any other costs directly related to the participant's diagnosis including, if applicable, the costs of any alternative accommodation provided to the participant by the provider.)

A provider may make a direct billing claim for this support on behalf of all participants in the same household, per day, when:

- the participant is receiving Assistance in Supported Independent Living supports from the provider; and
- the participant is required to self-isolate or quarantine in accordance with COVID health advice and to ensure their personal safety and wellbeing; and
- the provider has incurred expenses above those usually incurred in the provision of Assistance in Supported Independent Living supports to the participant; and
- the claim date is in a period, and the participant lives in a location, that is specified in the Table of Specified Periods and Locations below.

If a provider is eligible to claim for this support in respect of all participants in the same household, then a single direct billing claim can be made in addition to the usual claim that the provider makes for the provision of Assistance in Supported Independent Living supports for those individual participants.

The specified periods and areas for this arrangement, and the maximum amount that the provider can claim per household, per day, are set out in the following Table. More detail on direct billing arrangements is on the payments and billing page of the NDIS website.

*Note – SIL providers will be able to bill the Agency for this amount effective 11 January 2022, noting claims will be able to be lodged in the system from 7 February 2022.
