The NDIA established the Self-Management Advisory Group in 2024.

The Group provides advice to the NDIA on changes to the NDIS that impact people who self-manage their plans. This includes advice on implementing NDIS Reform and the Self-management policy.

The Self-Management Advisory Group will help shape how the NDIA co-designs and engage with the disability community about changes that impact self-management.

Membership

Membership includes self-managed participants, child representatives and nominees, as well as representatives from the disability sector and the Independent Advisory Council.

Members are:

- Sam Paior – Independent Advisory Council member (Co-Chair)
- Marita Walker – Subject matter expert
- Marguerite Visser – Australian Inclusion Group
- Jane Wardlaw – Independent Advisory Council member
- Ken Griffits – Participant Representative
- Sylvana Mahmic – Participant Representative
