1 May 2019

A new NDIS grant round to establish a national network of specialist providers who will assist the NDIA to support the development of robust support coordination services for NDIS participants with exceptionally complex support needs was released on 5 April 2019 as an open and competitive grant round.

The closing time for the Exceptionally Complex Support Needs Program grant round has been extended to 2.00pm AEDT/AEST on 8 May 2019.

For further information on the Exceptionally Complex Support Needs Program grants or to apply

Related articles

Exceptionally Complex Support Needs Program grant round is now open

Date
11 April 2019

Individual Capacity Building grant round now open for applications

Date
11 March 2020

Outcome of first peer-led grant round

Date
7 April 2019

Read more news