The Board is the accountable authority for the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA).

The NDIA Board is responsible for:

- setting the strategic direction of the NDIA.
- developing and maintaining relationships with stakeholders, including: the Minister for the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), the Disability Reform Ministerial Council (DRMC) and the Independent Advisory Council.
- ensuring statutory compliance and risk management.
- monitoring the performance of the NDIA and reporting to the DRMC as set out in the NDIS and PGPA Acts and intergovernmental agreements.
- developing an annual Corporate Plan for the NDIA.

The NDIA Board consists of a Chair and 11 members. Appointments of the Chair and Board are made under the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 (the NDIS Act) by the Minister for the NDIS in consultation with all Australian state and territories.

Board members are appointed on a part-time basis for terms of up to 3 years.

Members are eligible for appointment only if the Commonwealth Minister is satisfied they are a person with disability, have lived experience with disability, or have the skills, experience or knowledge in one or more of the following fields:

- the provision or use of disability services
- the operation of insurance schemes, compensation schemes or schemes with long term liabilities
- financial management
- corporate governance.
