
Posted on:

3 April 2019

Transcript for 'Anna's House'

26-year-old Anna's long-term goal was to live independently. Now she has Supported Independent Living (SIL) funded in her plan, she's been able to achieve that goal and move out into a private rental house with two friends her own age! Find out more about housing and supports funded by the NDIS.

Related Stories and videos

Specialist disability accommodation provides a safe, accessible and age-appropriate home for Shania

Shania lives her own life in a new accessible share house

28 October 2019

In four months, Steph achieved her goal to move out of the family home and lead her own life

Steph's left home and is enjoying living her own life

23 January 2020

Celebrating International Day of People with Disability

Krystal thrives in leadership role for housing provider with a difference

1 December 2022

More stories and videos