NDIS Participant newsletter

The NDIS Participant newsletter is sent every 2 weeks. It shares important updates, news and resources for NDIS participants and their support networks.

Participant First newsletter

The Participant First newsletter provides regular feedback opportunities for our Participant First members. It also includes updates and insights from previous research to inform how our participants' feedback shapes the Scheme. This newsletter is distributed every fortnight.

Provider newsletter

The Provider newsletter is a monthly email that shares updates, news, events and stories that are relevant to NDIS providers.

Data and insights newsletter

The Data and Insights newsletter is released quarterly. It shares the NDIS Quarterly Report and details about Scheme performance from the previous quarter.
