Posted on:
13 August 2019
Transcript for 'NDIS visits Norfolk Island'

The locals on Norfolk Island describe it as ‘the best place on earth’, but prior to the NDIS rollout in 2018 there were no disability services on the island.

Through consultation with the community and families and a partnership with Autism Aspect Australia, the NDIA established a unique model of service delivery that’s seeing remarkable outcomes for both NDIS participants and the wider community.

Related Stories and videos

Jonty and his family are ‘back living the dream’ on Norfolk Island now that NDIS supports are available.

Living the dream on Norfolk Island

30 August 2019
A great celebration of cricket and inclusion

NDIS visits the National Cricket Inclusion Championships

20 February 2019
Online activities are the new normal for Stefan

Stefan’s new normal beats the lockdown blues

22 May 2020
More stories and videos