Posted on:
6 March 2020

Two deaf women's teams, Victoria and The All Stars (featuring players from Queensland, South Australia, New South Wales and Australia Capital Territory), competed for the 'Melissa Hale Trophy' in a three-match series at the National Cricket Inclusion Championships (NCIC) in Geelong in January 2020.

The ICC Women's T20 Cricket World Cup was held in Melbourne from 21 February with the final on 8 March.

Transcript for 'The women of NCIC 2020'

Related Stories and videos

A great celebration of cricket and inclusion

NDIS visits the National Cricket Inclusion Championships

20 February 2019
Daynah's dreams on and off the pitch combine in push for sporting accessibility for all.

Daynah hits goals for six in celebration of World Autism Day

1 April 2022
Belinda (Bel) Cini is in her second season, employed as a 'water girl' for the Geelong Football Club's women's team

Bel keeps the Geelong Cats women's team watered and ready

3 May 2024
More stories and videos