15 August 2018

The Commonwealth Government will provide more than $9.3 million in grant funding to help make remote communities more inclusive and supportive of people with disability.

Minister for Social Services Dan Tehan said the thirteen projects in the Northern Territory, Queensland and South Australia have a strong focus on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disability.

Read more about past grant rounds

Related articles

A more inclusive Australia

Date
30 April 2018

Organisations receive funding to make ACT more inclusive

Date
21 April 2017

Community collaboration key to NDIS delivery

Date
17 March 2017

Read more news