Posted on:
18 June 2020

Hawthorn Football Club received ILC funding in the 2019 Economic and Community Participation grant round to help raise awareness of the value and contribution of people with disability within the workplace.

Part of the funding supported Hawthorn to employ Ned Brewer-Maiga as their Community Trainee - Social Inclusion, a 12-month paid traineeship opportunity.

Transcript for 'Ned leads inclusion at the Hawks'

Related Stories and videos

Kids and adults enjoy the game they love in safe and welcoming environment

One Culture celebrates diversity and inclusion on football field

18 December 2020
On International Women's Day 2024 the NDIA is proud to acknowledge Leah van Poppel and her commitment to supporting people with disability to live better lives

Leah's fight for greater social and economic inclusion

5 March 2024
A great celebration of cricket and inclusion

NDIS visits the National Cricket Inclusion Championships

20 February 2019
More stories and videos