14 October 2020

Your GP can now use new resources to help collect the right information on your behalf when they are supporting you to access the NDIS.

Check your GP knows about the new resources so they can best support you in completing your access request form as quickly and accurately as possible.

Related articles

New NDIS arrangements in remote Western Australia helping Australians access disability supports

Date
7 April 2019

Improving participants' access to their personal information

Date
1 July 2020

Helping participants engage with local support coordinators

Date
11 October 2021

Read more news