

23 June 2022

The NDIA is working with IPA Personnel to create a register of qualified disability support workers who can be deployed locally on a short-term basis to cover potential workforce shortages and critical shifts over the winter months.

Minister for the NDIS the Hon. Bill Shorten MP said that the register would help ensure the continuity of supports for NDIS participants in the event the community is hit with workforce shortages.

Read the media release from the Minister.

Find out more at winterrelief.com.au .

Transcript for 'Join the Winter Relief Workforce'

Related articles

Calling on recruits for new Winter relief workforce to help protect NDIS participants

Date

23 June 2022

Australian Government announces funding to help deliver NDIS workforce

Date

7 August 2019

Funding to help deliver NDIS workforce in Western Australia

Date

7 August 2019

Read more news