

Come along and join us to celebrate International Day of People with Disability on Saturday 3 December 2022.

Hear from guest speakers, wheelchair motorcross star Tim Lachlan and personal trainer Shane Falconer, who lives with a visual impairment. Relax with friends and family and listen to Ikuna Voices, a local choir group of people living with vision impairments.

This event is an opportunity to come together and celebrate people with disabilities and our community.

Don't miss out - RSVP today. Everyone welcome.

Registration link

Register online \(External website\)

---

Related events

Category

- General information
- New to the NDIS
- Online Event
- Participant
- Planning

Testing NDIS improvements - Creating and using your NDIS plan

The NDIA would like to invite Tasmanian NDIS participants, families, carers and people from the disability community to attend an online information session.

Event Date

Wednesday, 8 February 2023

Category

- General information
- New to the NDIS
- Online Event
- Participant
- Planning

Testing NDIS improvements - Creating and using your NDIS plan

The NDIA would like to invite Tasmanian NDIS participants, families, carers and people from the disability community to attend an online information session.

Event Date

Wednesday, 8 February 2023

Category

- Online Event

NDIS Cultural and Linguistic Diversity (CALD) Strategy Information Session

The NDIA is co-designing a new Cultural and Linguistic Diversity (CALD) Strategy and action plan. We are doing this by working with people with disability from CALD backgrounds. This information session will provide an overview of the project and share key learnings about ways to improve the NDIS for CALD people with disability. At the end of the event, we will invite you to have your say about how the NDIS can support people with disability from CALD backgrounds achieve outcomes on an equal basis with the broader population. We would like to invite you to an information session if...

Event Date

Tuesday, 7 February 2023

More events