

The Department of Social Services with support from National Disability Insurance Agency invites providers to an information session on “Blended Payments” which are planned to commence in the second half of 2024.

The two trials are for:

- School leavers with difficulties in learning, social interaction and self-management who want to gain employment.
- Younger People in Residential Aged Care (YPIRAC) participants.

This session will focus on NDIS participants leaving school and is for providers of NDIS school leaver employment supports.

These sessions will cover:

- overview and background
- opportunities to be involved
- timelines, and
- next steps.

Event timezone is AEDT.
