Category

- Fraud and compliance
- Media release from the Minister

Criminals jailed as crackdown on multi-million dollar NDIS rorting continues

Three people have been jailed in New South Wales for their roles in a multimillion-dollar defrauding of the NDIS, in a week NDIS Minister, the Hon. Bill Shorten MP announced further measures to crackdown on rorts. The sentencing is the result of an investigation into several suspected fraudulent providers in western Sydney. The investigation, led by the Australian Federal Police in partnership with the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA), AUSTRAC and Services Australia, uncovered more than $5.8 million in fraud during the thorough investigation. Two other men were sentenced to imprisonment in 2022 as part of the investigation.
Date
1 November 2024
Category

- Media release from the Minister

NDIS $1 billion dollars better off than forecast, Scheme on track to hit growth target

Reforms led by the Minister for the NDIS are contributing to Scheme expenditure being $1 billion lower than forecast in the 2024-25 Budget. The reforms are expected to stabilise the growth in Scheme expenses over the next 4 years.
Date
1 November 2024
Category

- Fraud and compliance
- Media release from the Minister

Major increases to penalties and criminal offences planned for NDIS providers

Minister for the National Disability Insurance Scheme and Government Services the Hon. Bill Shorten MP has today announced the second part of NDIS legislation Getting it Back on Track

Bill, which will significantly increase protections for Scheme participants and workers, as well as improve the quality and safety of supports for all participants.
Date
28 October 2024
Category

- Media statements

3 October legislation changes

From 3 October 2024, there are some changes to how the NDIS works to bring greater clarity and flexibility to participants. We want to reassure participants that for most people there won't be fundamental changes to how you experience the NDIS right now.
Date
1 October 2024
Category

- Media release from the Minister

Support lists boost clarity for NDIS participants and providers

The Hon. Bill Shorten MP has today released the final lists of what NDIS participants can and cannot spend their funding on. The lists will provide much needed clarity and certainty to participants and providers. This is the first time this list has been reviewed since the commencement of the NDIS and updates current guidelines and practices. The lists will come into effect from 3 October 2024 and make it easier for participants to identify what is appropriately funded by the NDIS, and what NDIS funding can be used to purchase. There is also a substitution list which will allow...
Date
1 October 2024
Category

- Media release from the Minister

NDIS providers receive grants to co-design new payment options

The Australian Government is trialling a new approach to paying for disability supports to ensure National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) participants receive high quality supports that produce meaningful outcomes.

Date
27 September 2024

« « First ‹ ‹‹ ... 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 › ›› » Last »